

TASK DESCRIPTION

Pastor Trainer

Summary: Equip indigenous pastors and church leaders to develop and multiply foundational, highly contextualized tools and training for evangelism, discipleship and leading healthy churches. Entrust provides training in needed cross-cultural skills, and a collaborative, supportive atmosphere to learn, troubleshoot and grow.

Reports to: To be determined

Commitment: Full-time

Location: Asia, Eastern Europe or Middle East; possibility of living in-country or traveling periodically in-country in teams.

Compensation: Raises own support

SPECIFIC AREAS OF RESPONSIBILITY

- Diagnose local culture and church needs to determine how to overcome challenges to a biblical worldview.
- Partner with indigenous leaders and embedded cross-cultural workers to discern, adapt and create needed training systems.
- Use existing training materials developed by Entrust and/or available from other sources when possible.
- In collaboration with local leaders, develop new materials and methods when needed, in keeping with local learning styles and local church/cultural needs.
- Refine method and curriculum while teaching and passing leadership of the training on to local leaders.

OUTCOMES

- A training system will be established which can be reproduced with minimal need for outside support.
